Language-Pair Correlations | JRC Articles | luna | Zero Shot

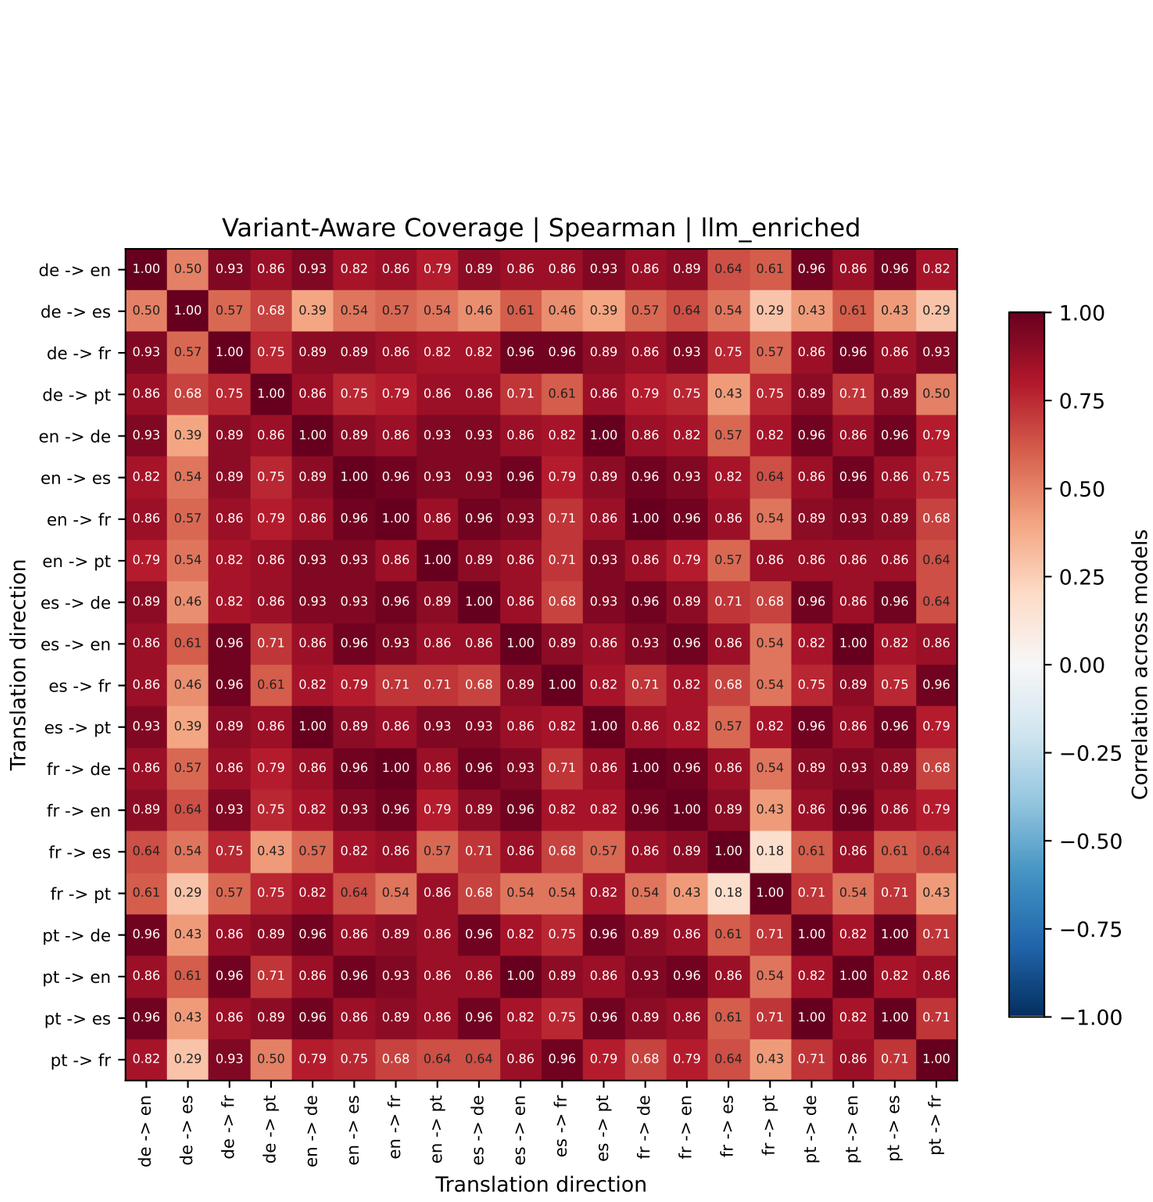

Each cell correlates native scores for two directions across 7 models. Prompts, datasets and metrics are separate.
Positive = models stronger on one direction tend to be stronger on the other. NA = constant scores or fewer than three models.
Descriptive associations can reflect overall model quality; not significance, causality or isolated language ability.